

Can You Make A Fire

Natalie Hollinger

Verse 1

A million delusions in my head
A million snowflakes over my bed,
Nightmares howl to chill the skin
Eerie memories pull covers to my chin,
Insecurity reigns with bolts of fright
As I sit here naked in the lake light,
Awakening swim, my body steams
Life rising out of dormant dreams-

Chorus 1

Can you make a fire
The storms have fed into the lake,
Can you make a fire
The sky opens wide as the clouds break,
Can you make a fire
Your warm breath blows drying my skin,
Can you make a fire
As I sit here naked ready to begin-

Verse 2

You ask if I can make a fire
Little more do you inquire,
I hide from all my talents and thoughts
In rusted armour sealed with locks,
Secrets dark and deeper than this lake
To underestimate me is a chilly mistake,
We share this space though I'm not here
Alone in my shell, free without fear

Chorus 2

Can you make...
